

Stump Water

By PENN JONES JR.

Just returned from four days in California, and this hat shrunk. We do not have the head. No.

Everyone out there was so used to us.

We were on Side Lights, a TV show at Bakersfield, California for one hour and again on the Earl Kahl show in Los Angeles for one hour. Kahl was off his show for about two days. 31,000 cards and letters in two days got the 39 week contract renewed.

The people had to be turned out from the TV studio (seated at Earl's show, we were on the program with Sylvia Meagher, and S. Arnoni, both of New York City. Sylvia has done more work than most on the assassination, and has done it more effectively than anyone.

S. Arnoni, who spent more than six years in Hitler's concentration camps, is editor of the MINORITY OF ONE magazine, which accepts no advertising. Arnoni is doing what possibly can be tried to make the country retain a little of its past and former greatness.

We have not had the pleasure of seeing the full page ad in the NEW YORK TIMES which the Dallas bought to defend itself. We did, however, see the Dallas which informed us that we call him Big Daddy.

Since we have not seen the Dallas ad, we will have to try to imagine what Dallas could do to improve its image. These are off-hand suggestions and our probably will not be seriously considered by Dallas, but are offered in the kindest sympathy.

Example: "Everything we say about us is true. We are democratic. We are self centered. We did provide an atmosphere which made it possible for our President to be murdered. Now we promise to try to start doing better. We are going to put the truth in the pulpit and in the papers."

Example: "Yes, all you say about us is true. And if we do not do better in the next two months, we promise to dig a big hole, jump into it and pull the hole in behind us."

But Dallas doesn't take either of our suggestions!
